TALK OF THE TOWN

The teachers and pupils of Goddard seminary will give an entertainment at the Universalist fair, which is to be held the coming week.

It pays to get furs very cheap if you have the chance. Bring your old furs and exchange them before the stock is sold out. Jos. Kovalsky, tailor.

Roscoe Melver, a student at the University of Vermont, who came to Barre to-day to witness the Norwich-Middlebury game, is passing the week-end at his home in Granville.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's bargain basement Saturday. The Combination Five held its first baseball practice of the season last night. About 11 turned out to try for the team and also elected captain and manager for the following season. William Ross being elected captain and Charles Hall, manager. All outside teams should address 137 Seminary street, Barre, if they wish basketball games. This is the second year the same members have been elected captain and manager.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Home-made chicken pie for Sunday dinner at Marion's to-morrow. . . . . Fred G. Brown is taking a few days' vacation from his duties at Trow & Holden's machine shop and left to-day for Marshfield on a hunting trip.

Thomas R. Waterman of Burlington, tenor soloist, vocal teacher and coach, will be at 17 Wellington street Mondays from 2 to 6 and 7 to 9 p. m. Tel. 128-1 or Hotel Barre. . . . .

A number of local hunters left to-day for various localities where they will remain in camp over Sunday ready to start their quest for deer with the opening of the season Monday morning. G. L. Greig, who will hunt in Wolcott, E. L. Scott and L. M. Newton will go to Essex county, H. H. Hodgdon, W. A. Bishop, and E. L. Sampson are to make their headquarters at the Hudson camp in Plainfield, and D. Peduzzi and S. Marchesi have a camp in Pittsfield.

Guy C. Rocheleau of Burlington, a former resident of Barre, visited friends in the city while on his way to Orange county with a party of friends who are to establish a hunting camp during the open season for deer. George T. Cutler and "Bud" Robbins, also of Burlington, arrived in the city this afternoon to join a number of local nincoms who leave to-night for Perkinsville to open their camp. In the party planning to make its headquarters in the deep woods around Perkinsville during the next 10 days or a fortnight are Foreman H. H. Hodgdon, William H. Bishop, James Curtis and Otis Lewis.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: R. H. Llewellyn of Burlington, Secretary of State Guy W. Bailey of Essex Junction and State Treasurer Walter F. Scott of Brandon. Mrs. Ellen Kirk Davis of Rome, Italy. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burton of Boston. E. E. Beatty of Ensbury Falls. John B. Wheeler of Burlington. R. E. Bundy of Bethel. Mrs. D. S. Tuttle. Miss Marion Beckwith and E. D. Stickney of Williamstown. E. D. Stevens of West Burke. Charles H. Stuart of Boston. Wilbur J. Carlson of Jamestown, N. Y., who were arrivals at Hotel Barre; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ormrod of Plainfield, N. J.; Miss Constance Fillmore of Concord, N. H.; W. H. Gouley of Wolcott; R. E. May of St. Johnsbury; and F. Burton Royce of St. Albans.

Judge H. W. Scott presided over a session of juvenile court at city hall this forenoon when one boy implicated in five break-ins that have mystified the police during the late summer and fall was sent to the industrial school at Vergennes and a second youngster was given a humbly on juvenile behavior. George Tromp, aged 14, will pass the remainder of his minority in the industrial school. John Forbes, who is alleged to have received a mileage taken by Tromp, was not arraigned on any charge. To Officer Harry Gamble belongs the credit of running down the mongre chuse that led out from five break-ins. From Mrs. Clarence Wood's millinery store were taken a mileage, a gold watch, fish and fountain pen with an aggregate value of $50. Breaks in the F. C. Eaton studio and the suite occupied by Edward Ennis in the Campbell block and in the Southern house on Washington street were traced to one person. Of the articles taken, only the watchfish was recovered. The watch, the Tromp boy claimed, he had thrown away. The mileage was sold by the Forbes boy and the fountain pen disappeared. The fish, valued at $4 was sold for 30 cents.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. George Kent are spending the week-end in Montpelier. P. Q.

Mrs. Frank Cannon of Northfield was a visitor in the city to-day. George Adams of Portland, Me., arrived in the city last night and will make a few days' visit here with friends. Ernest Gregoire of Farwell street left the city this morning for Leicester Junction, where he will make a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. James P. Hicks, who has been passing a week in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Perry of Highland avenue, returned this afternoon to her home in St. Johnsbury. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Perry, who will make a visit of several days in St. Johnsbury.

It was John Pruneau who was taken to jail yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Dennis Donahue to serve a sentence of 78 days. Pruneau was arrested Thursday night at Granville on an intoxication charge to which he pleaded guilty before Justice A. C. Dickey in East Barre just before court Friday morning. In lieu of paying a fine of $10 and costs aggregating $8.20, Pruneau, who had recently completed a sentence of 10 days, elected to return to the county jail.

A Burlington roadster owned by Cecil Place of that city and occupied by her and a young man named Lascor, who was at the wheel, collided with the rear end of a buckboard vehicle in front of the L. M. Averill block during the noon hour. The owner of the roadster offered to settle the damages accruing from the mishap, but the man who seemed to be in possession of the buckboard, angrily refused any redress. As the car was going slowly at the time, damage to the buckboard outfit was kept down to a trivial figure.

A party of four Barre men left the city last night for Montreal, P. Q., where they expect to enlist as regulars in the contingent that Canada is getting ready to send overseas in the spring. It was not until yesterday that Andrew Robertson, James Morrison, James Beattie and Robert Smith discussed the enlistment plan, but once the quartet warmed to their subject, it was quite decided that they should leave on the late evening or early morning train. A number of their countrymen were at the station to bid them farewell on their venture. The men expected to pass the winter in a Canadian training camp with fair prospects of being able to see real fighting in the spring. They are the first Barre men to go directly to Canada for the purpose of enlisting, although a number of local men have enlisted in Scotland and Italy.

Manager John B. Eames of the Park theatre, who returned yesterday from Boston, has booked contracts with the United States and will exhibit what is known as a feature film in the movie world each day as a part of the management's new policy. Entries for next week were announced this morning as follows: Monday, Mary Pickford (Paramount); Tuesday, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Byrne (Vitascope-Lubin-Selig); Wednesday, in "Graniteville" and Charlie Chaplin in "Shanghaied"; Wednesday, Albert Chevalier in "The Middleman" (Mutos); Thursday, Julius Stager (Equitalk); in "The Master of the House"; Friday, Henry Arley (Paramount); in "Brother Officers"; Saturday, Hildred Blinn (World); in "The Family Cupboard"; and, Sunday, in "The Family Cupboard".

EAST MONTPELIER.

It seems that the Plainfield correspondent is sore because his town is credited with some Universalist ladies and an apron sale. We are glad that he corrects the error, as we want all the credit for what we are and what we are doing in East Montpelier. We are sorry to disagree with him, but we firmly believe that improving the church grounds is just as worthy an object as installing a drinking fountain.

GRANITEVILLE.

Annual fair and food sale of the ladies' aid society of the Graniteville Presbyterian church, Nov. 18, 19, 20. Mayor Boutwell's Grand Circuit Horses Come Back for Winter.

Mayor Boutwell's grand circuit horses, Peter Johnson and Coatsman Mabel, the latter a converted trotter, arrived in the city yesterday from Dover, N. H., and will winter in this city. The horses were in the string during the racing season of Walter Cox. Coatsman Mabel this fall captured six firsts and two seconds on the twice-round tracks. Baron A., another fast one, the property of Mr. Cox, also arrived in the city with the other racers.

Edward Limoge of Burlington, who arrived in the city early in the week to attend the funeral of Lewis Wood, went to-day to Waterbury, for a visit with relatives.

South and northbound trains over the Central Vermont railroad and the Montpelier & Wells River trains were crowded to-day with hunters leaving for remote parts of the state to be in readiness for the opening of the deer season Monday.

Miss Ethel Jayne, who has been making an extended visit in the city with her brother, E. Stanley Jayne, left this morning for her home in North Adams, Mass.

Justice Seneca Haselton, George M. Powers and W. H. Taylor of the supreme court which adjourned the November term yesterday afternoon, left last evening for their respective homes at Burlington, Morrisville and Hardwick, and Chief Justice Loveland Munson returned this forenoon to his home at Manchester. The court opens a special term at Rutland Tuesday of next week.

In probate court, Mrs. Addie Dix settled her account as guardian of Rachel Dix, now of age, and was discharged. Both are of Barre.
